UNCLESAM'S MAN ASTONISHES THE BUTCHER.

Says That Bombs Will Be Dropping Dropping In Havana Within Two Weeks If He Makes a Hostile Move—Weyler Is Threatened With Recall

Key West, Fla., Oct. 20.—If the Spanish authorities had taken Senor Angel Fernandez off the Ward Line steamer Vigilancia while that vessel was in Havana Harbor last Friday United States warships would have immediately been ordered to Havana to enforce a demand for reparation and war between this country and Spain would have undoubtedly resulted.

For three hours last Friday the United States and Spain were on the brink of war, and the threatening situation was only relieved when the Spanish authorities ignominiously backed down and allowed the Vigilancia to proceed to sea with Fernandez still on board.

A letter received here from a correspondent in Havana who is close to Consul-General Lee gives a dramatic account of the episode. According to the letter, when the Vigilancia put into Havana the Spanish authorities demanded the surrender of Senor Angel Fernandez, a Mexican on board the vessel. The Spaniards alleged that sent out by Spanish officers have been greatly exaggerated and that so far the rebels have more than held their own in the struggle for independence. It is stated the revolution is now beyond the control of the Spanish authorities, and that unless reinforcements are sent to Manila immediately the Spanish forces are in danger of final defeat. The rebels hold the province of Cavite, are well organized and have 8,000 Mauser rifles. There are many natives in the Spanish troops and the officers are afraid to take native regiments into the interior because their loyalty is doubted.

Weyler Must Win in a Month. Havana, Cuba, by way of Tampa, Fla., Oct. 20.—Weyler and Blanco will be recalled, Premier Canovas will fall, and grave events will occur in Spain, Madrid dispatches say it is believed there, unless the rebels in Cuba and the Philippine Islands are conquered within a month.

To Change Dardanelles Treaty. MAJOR M'KINLEY RECEIVES BRYAN IS AGAIN TOURING BUCKEYE STATE.

Abraham Lincoln's Private Secretary is Among Those Who Call—Addresses Delegations From Cwickley Pa. and Moyadore, O.—Col. John Hay Speaks—Republican News

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 20.—The week's visits to Maj. McKinley began with the arrival about noon of several carloads of people from Sewickley, Pa. In the party were a number of ladies and the McKinley and Hobart Sound Money club of that city. After the address Mrs. McKinley received the ladies and the whole party was photographed with Maj. McKinley in the center of the group.

Maj. McKinley said in part: "The republican party has always occupied a part of great honor. From Toledo, O., Oct. 21.—The Buckeye state, the home of his opponent, was again visited by William J. Bryan Monday. At 6:30 the city of Toledo was reached. Here a crowd had gathered about the depot and outside the gates, and cheered the nominee. At 7 o'clock he made a three-minute platform speech at Perryburg, and another at Deshler a half-hour later. Short speeches of less than five minutes were made by him at Ottawa and Leipsic Junction. About the grand stand in the city after 5 o'clock, Mr. Bryan spoke at the fair grounds. The crowd was estimated away up in the thousands, and the streets were crowded with thousands of others. For many blocks the other streets were lined with exultant humanity, and the trip out to the grounds was a continual ovation. The crowd was wildly enthusiastic and interrupted the speaker time and again with demonstrations of its hearty approval of the ideas advanced.

Circleville came in for a five-minute talk from the platform of the rear car to a fair sized audience. There were short addresses at Lancaster and New Lexington to crowds as large as could be expected. By this time a drizzling rain had set in and the outdoor speeches were consequently attended with inconvenience to the candidate. The train was two hours late, and Zanesville was not reached until after 11:30 o'clock. Here the nominee made a speech of a half hour's duration. The train bearing the party left for Bellaire at 1:05 and will arrive at that place about 8 o'clock to-morrow, when the nominee makes the first speech of the day.

Fernandez was not a Mexican, but a subject of Spain. Capt. John McIntosh of the Vigilancia refused to surrender Fernandez. Then the Spanish authorities told McIntosh that if the Vigilancia attempted to go to sea with Fernandez on board it would be sunk by the guns of Moro Castle. Capt. McIntosh immediately laid the matter before Consul-General Lee, who complimented the Captain on his bravery and told him to take the Vigilancia to sea when he pleased.

Consul Lee was greatly enraged at the threat to sink the Vigilancia, and is reported to have said to Capt. McIntosh:

"If the guns of Moro Castle sink your ship American warships will be bombarding Havana in a few days."

Capt. McIntosh returned to the Vigilancia and Consul Lee informed Weyler that the vessel was going to sea and that if any attempt was made to take off Fernandez or that if the vessel was fired upon Spain must take the consequences. Weyler immediately summoned a Cabinet council, and while this council was considering the matter the Vigilancia began to weigh anchor. The Spanish officials on board protested, but Capt. McIntosh said in vigorous language, the letter states:

"Don your objections; my ship has been cleared. My Consul has told me to go to sea. I am going, and I dare you to try to prevent me. Get off my ship."

And with that the Yankee roughly shoved the Spaniards into the waiting boats and the Vigilancia, flying the Stars and Stripes, started for the mouth of the harbor, which is commanded by the guns of Moro Castle.

It is said that Weyler is furious over the departure of the vessel and Consul-General Lee's course. It is stated Weyler ordered the commandant of Moro to sink the Vigilancia, but that at the last moment he yielded to the entreaties of his cabinet and countermanded the order.

Leaves Under Sealed Orders.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 20.—The United States revenue cutter Windom will leave this port at 9:30 a. m. to-day under sealed orders. It is thought the orders which Capt. Hand will open when clear of the Capes will instruct him to be on the lookout for filibustering expeditions leaving the Florida coast. The Windom is a twin-screw steamer of light draft and has a battery of rapid-fire guns; also it has the distinction of being the only United States craft that has left this port under sealed orders in many years.

Philippine Rebellion Is Serious.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 20.—Advices by the steamer Peru from Singapore and Hongkong state up to Sept. 27 that the rebellion in the Philippine Islands is much more serious than has been generally recognized. It is said the reports of revolutionist defeats weather reduced the attendance greatly. The vice-president made an address for Bryan and silver from the court-house steps. Ex-Congressman Lane and Judge Shackelford spoke immediately afterward to a large audience at the opera house. Judge Prentiss of Chicago spoke for two hours at night. The opera house was filled to its utmost capacity. The vice-president left on the evening train for Chicago.

Suicide of a Boy.

New York, Oct. 20.—Samuel Ralston, 14 years old, an inmate of the House of Refuge on Randall's island, committed suicide by hanging. The body was found suspended from a transom in the boy's room.

Reed Talks to 7,000.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Closure was not enforced against the czar of congress Monday afternoon at the Auditorium, and Thomas Brackett Reed found voice to address 7,000. Not, however, with old-time vigor, nor the powerful voice of bygone days. He was changed—older, more careworn, and less the stalwart leader—yet the carefully uttered speech caught the crowd, and the applause was unstinted. When Mr. Reed entered from the left wing of the stage there broke forth one concert of prolonged cheering. Hats, handkerchiefs, overcoats, umbrellas and canes were thrown aloft, and wildly waved a welcome to the portly speaker. In a lull some one shouted: "Three cheers for Thomas Brackett Reed!" They were given with a will and a "tiger" to boot. Another three were proposed and lustily given. Mr. Reed addressed 12,000 persons at night in the big tent which had been pitched at 51st and Halsted streets. The crowd had waited and shivered for forty-five minutes, but still it was warm and enthusiastic when the speaker arrived.

Union Generals in Ohio.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 20.—The Union Generals who are speaking for McKinley made a lively trip through Ohio Monday.

They began by holding a meeting at Canton in the morning. There was freezing weather, but the big throng was crowded at 7:30 and the scene a warm and brilliant one. Cons. Howard, Alger, Marden and Stewart, Corporal Tanner and Gens. Burst, Walker and Sickles each made addresses. At their conclusion each of them was presented with a basket of flowers by the Canton Woman's Relief corps. The meeting was one of the most enthusiastic of the campaign.

the time of its organization down to the present moment it has been the leader of all that is best in government. It was born in the interests of liberty and the rights of humanity. It has never struck a blow that has not been for freedom and our glorious flag. And in every great emergency that party, not so old as some other parties in this country, has led for the right, for justice, for good morals, and for public honesty.

"It never had a higher post of honor than it has today. Glorious as the past has been, it has never carried a flag which involved more to the institutions of our country and to its good name than the flag it carries today. And I am glad to know that from one end of this country to the other the intelligence and judgment and conscience of the American people are not appealed to in vain."

The afternoon brought to Canton a party of friends and admirers of Maj. McKinley from Moyadore, Ohio, of whose visit no announcement had been made.

Col. John Hay, who was President Lincoln's private secretary, arrived in Canton shortly after noon Monday, and was met at the depot by Maj. McKinley. He expressed his surprise at the campaign as he has personally viewed it and as he has read it.

"There has never been anything like it," he says. "Probably the nearest approach to it was the campaign of Mr. Lincoln, when the nominee received at his very home a large number of visitors. But they did not come in any such numbers as they are coming to Canton, and Mr. Lincoln made no speeches. It has always been regarded unsafe for a presidential candidate to discuss public questions. But Maj. McKinley in all his speeches has not uttered a wrong word or made a mistake, and has added greatly to the strength of the republican cause every day."

Capt. Lafayette Williams of Chicago, Mrs. McKinley's cousin, is also here with his wife. He is en route home from Europe, where he has been visiting for several months.

Sol Smith Russell called during the afternoon to pay his respects to Maj. McKinley. Mrs. McKinley and a party of friends attended his performance last night.

Throng to Hear Tanner.

Rushville, Ill., Oct. 20.—John R. Tanner addressed a gathering of between 12,000 and 15,000 people in the public park in this little town Monday. The demonstration was said to be the largest and most enthusiastic ever tendered a republican candidate in this part of the country. Old inhabitants say that it eclipsed the monster mass-meeting held here several years ago in honor of Logan.

Wood frame warranted wringers at 1.35 each are bargains of the right sort. Lowell Hardware Co.

park of Lima several thousand people had gathered to hear the nominee, and when they heard him they gave demonstrative evidence of approval. In his speech Mr. Bryan quoted the letter of Mark Hanna calling on the people who intended to vote the republican ticket to hang the American flag from their windows Oct. 31. His reference to the letter was:

"My friends, it is the first time that I know of that I have ever agreed with the chairman of the republican national committee, but I want to sign my name to this letter and ask all those who believe in the ideas set forth there to display the flag on the 31st of October, because there is not a thing in that letter but what we advocates of free silver indorse. Now, note what he says, that he wants the flag displayed by all those who on the 3d of November intend to vote for the preservation of our national honor. We advocates of free silver believe that only by having a financial policy made by the American people for the American people can you support the honor of the United States. He wants those to display the flag who are for sound money. We who believe in the money of the constitution are for a sounder money than those who want to change our currency into pounds, shillings and pence."

"My friends, I want to ask all advocates of silver to bring out the flag on that day. I want them to put it into their homes and in their places of business, and, if need be, to carry it upon the streets, and let our opponents know that we do not intend to surrender that ensign and emblem into the hands of the enemies of the people of this country." (Great applause and cheering.)

As enthusiastic an audience as Mr. Bryan has addressed for some time was at Wapakoneta when the special pulled into that place shortly before 11 o'clock.

Several thousand people of Sidney and the surrounding country listened to and cheered the nominee at Sidney. A crowd of several thousand people cheered the train at Dayton, where a stop of ten minutes was made to attach an extra coach containing the Hamilton escort committee of fifty.

At Hamilton an immense crowd met the train, ex-Gov. James E. Campbell, whose home is here, being at the head of the reception committee. Mr. Bryan was escorted through the town, which was nicely decorated, by a parade, in which several hundred people took part, most of them being uniformed. The candidate spoke from a stand erected in the court house park to a crowd of more than 10,000. He was introduced by ex-Gov. Campbell, who in this way made his formal entry into the campaign for the nominees of the Chicago convention. Both the candidate and his sponsor were received with tremendous applause.

At Dayton the largest audience of the day yelled itself hoarse when, shortly his talk he said: "It is the purpose of the millionaires to establish class rule and class distinction." Before closing he referred to Speaker Reed by saying: "A confederate man has been in our city to-day speaking from the stage of the Auditorium."

Typographical Union Adjourns.

Colorado Springs, Col., Oct. 20.—The forty-third convention of the International Typographical union finished its session in this city Monday. Matters pertaining only to the closing of the convention were transacted. By night nearly all the delegates had left the city. President Prescott this morning said this convention had in many respects been the most important held in the last ten years, and claimed that it had cost $30,000.

But it is too early to say whether or not the proposals of the British government are likely to be accepted."

The Hague, Holland, Oct. 21.—Prof. Burr and Mr. De Hann, the experts of the United States Venezuelan commission, who have been in Europe for some time studying the archives of London, Madrid and The Hague for the purpose of assisting the commission in its investigation of the boundary dispute between Venezuela and Great Britain, have completed their work.

NOTED POLITICIANS MET AT MILTON

ALTGELD, PEPPER AND ALL THE REST PRESENT.

The Session, However, Was a Burlesque, But Altgeld Got Hisses While Bragg Was Cheered—Election Officers Are Named—Sopiere Man Goes Insane.

THE GAZETTE AGENCY,
W. CLARK, Manager,
Milton, Wis., Oct. 20, 1896.

The joint session of the College Literary societies was held in college chapel Saturday evening. This is always an event of the term and great preparations are made for it. On this occasion the exercises were in the form of a political mass meeting in which representatives of every shade of political belief had an opportunity to speak. L. M. Babcock was elected chairman of the evening. R. B. Tolbert, as Senator Pepper with his long flowing beard reaching nearly to his ankles, spoke in favor of the despised metal—"16 to 1." He was followed by Mrs. Lease, represented by Miss Nellie Hill, whose witty remarks on woman's rights pleased the audience greatly. John P. Altgeld was next called for. Amid mingled cheers and hisses, F. M. Barker as Altgeld, mounted the platform and delivered one of his sarcastic speeches on the political situation of today. Next came Gen. Bragg represented by Frank Shaw. This effort was of the spread eagle sort and took the house by storm. Then came the two regular speeches of the evening, the first by P. L. Clarke, representing Mr. Hanna and the second by P. W. Johnson, representing Senator Jones. Both presented their arguments in a very convincing manner and their efforts were really a credit to the college. Band music was interspersed being furnished by players from Milton and Milton Junction. Republican cartoons drawn by M. Lisle Plumb decorated the chapel. Among the most laughable ones was a lot of bags of wind hung up, labeled "Bryan Arguments" and a pumpkin jack-o'-lantern with an exceedingly large mouth bearing the label, "chief organ of the popocate."

Election Officers Named
The following are the election officers: Precinct No. 1—Inspectors, P. H. Cole, W. H. Morgan, H. H. Stockman, Clerks, L. A. Richardson, A. M. Thorpe. Ballot clerks, A. D. Frink, Walter Swaney.
Precinct No. 2—Inspectors, W. H. Davidson, W. P. Marquart, J. C. Goodrich, Clerks, M. Rice, F. M. Pamlier. Ballot clerks, J. E. Davidson, F. G. Borden.

The polls in this place will be held in the room adjoining the Milton House. They will open at 9 o'clock a. m. and close at 4:51 p. m. sunset.

Grain Prices Rise
Prices of grain have been rather better the past week, but a scarcity of cars has interfered somewhat with the shipments. The hog market on the contrary, has been declining, preventing large shipments. For the week ending Saturday, Featherston Brothers loaded four cars of oats, two of barley, two of hay and three of hogs. A total of eleven.

Clarke's Collection Enlarged
Engelbrecht, the Whitewater merchant, inspected W. P. Clarke's archaeological collection Saturday. Among the late additions which Mr. Clarke has made are forty handsome arrow points, which were made for him by Rev. Mr. Steele, pastor of the North Johnstown Free Will Baptist church.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1632—Sir Christopher Wren, the great architect, was born in Wiltshire.
 1784—Henry John Temple, Lord Palmerston, was born; died 1865.
 1823—Daniel Edgar Sickles, lawyer and soldier, was born in New York city. Thomas Hughes, author of "Tom Brown," was born in Berkshire.
 1842—Grace Darling, heroine of Longstone lighthouse, died at Bamborough at the age of 25.
 1890—Sir Richard Francis Burton, British explorer, soldier and linguist, translator of the "Arabian Nights," died in Trieste, Austria; born in Galway 1821.
 1892—Rev. Dr. Philip Schaff, celebrated Biblical exegete and church historian, died in New York city; born 1819.
 1894—James Anthony Froude, a leading British essayist and historian of the times, died in London; born 1818.
 1895—Henry Augustus Loop, well known artist, died at Lake George, N. Y.; born 1831.
 Rachel Elam, first white settler in Chicago, died in that city.

Silverites who tell about the "contraction of the currency" may not know that there was added to the metallic currency of the country last year $66,196,781 or 50 per cent more than sufficient to "keep pace with the increase of the population." In the preceding year, 1895, the amount added to it was $89,184,988 or more than twice the amount needed for this purpose. There has not been a year since the repeal of the Bland law in which the increase from the coinage of gold alone was not much more than enough to keep pace with the growth of the population.

In Horace Rublee Wisconsin journalism lost a man who united the best elements of journalists of two generations. In spite of many limitations he built up by the very power of personality, a typical, modern newspaper. Fearless, tireless and strong-brained he made his mark wherever placed. He was a potent in public affairs as in journalism and it is not yet to be said in which field his name will stand higher.

The last thing any employer would think of doing under the Australian ballot system would be to try coercion. Bryanites know this, and the howl they have raised is significant only so far as an acknowledgment of defeat.

Neither Mr. Richmond nor any other free silver speaker has explained to Janesville workmen why they should vote for a policy that cuts wages in two by doubling the cost of living.

No workman wants a thing which he must take for a dollar but which will be taken from him at its commercial value only—about 51 cents under the free coinage policy.

Bryan's opposition to help workmen by clipping their dollars and doubling their grocery bills awakens scant enthusiasm.

The newspapers have fun over Mr. Eanna's looks, but they don't find many chances to point out his mistakes.

Gorman is out for Bryan and a statement from Hill is confidently expected before Thanksgiving.

Unpardonable Crime.

 "And before six o'clock! What a scoundrel!"—Chicago Tribune.

THE BLUES.

A GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE DREADFUL FEELING.

What Is Meant by This Form of Acute Misery—Where Doctors Make Mistakes.
 When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture.

It is usually this way:—
 She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time; head has ached, and back also; has slept poorly; been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart has beat very fast; then that bearing-down feeling. Her doctor says, "cheer up, you have dyspepsia; you'll be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right." She grows worse day by day, till all at once she realizes that a distressing female complaint is established.

Her doctor has made a mistake. She has lost faith in him; hope vanishes; then comes the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES. Her doctor, if he knew, should have told her and cured her, but he did not, and she was allowed to suffer. By chance she came across one of Mrs. Pinkham's books, and in it she found her very symptoms described and an explanation of what they meant. Then she wrote to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice, feeling that she was telling her troubles to a woman. Speedy relief followed, and vigorous health returned.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the story recited above is the true experience of hundreds of women, whose letters of gratitude are to be found on file in Mrs. Pinkham's library.

Messrs. Crossett & Bonesteel, Agents, Janesville, Wis.
 Gentlemen:—
 We understand that you are not regular dealers in coal at Janesville and if you were we would not care to sell you and be a party to breaking up that market as you have already done.
 We do not see how you can afford to do business at cost, as I know you have done at Janesville in some cases, when you could have joined the dealers there and gotten a fair price on the goods you handled.
 Yours truly,

We are still in business however.

MEMORY OF M. S. PRICHARD FITTINGLY HONORED.

It was decided that the members of the bar attend the funeral in a body, and an invitation is extended to all the attorneys in Rock county to meet at the Hotel Myers at 1:20 o'clock tomorrow to march to the residence.

Death of Mrs. Saxton.

Milton Wis., October 20.—[Special]—This community was shocked Monday by the sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Leo Saxton of Darien.

Deceased and her husband came to this village immediately after their recent marriage to spend a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clem W. Crumb, the latter being Mr. Saxton's aunt. Mrs. Saxton was soon taken sick, but her malady seemed to yield to treatment and for several days she improved, but on Sunday she began to grow worse and that evening Dr. Sutherland of Janesville, was called in consultation with Dr. Crandall, and he found a well developed case of that dread disease, appendicitis.

Her condition would not permit of an operation and she failed very rapidly, her death occurring at 12:30 p. m. Her parents were with her during the last hours and the remains were taken to Darien today (Tuesday) for burial. The friends of the bereaved husband whose bride of two weeks has been taken from him by the angel of death, extend their heartfelt sympathy to him and other near relatives in this their hour of intense grief.

FLAMBEAUX TO FLARE AND BANDS TO PLAY.

Congressman Will Get An Enthusiastic Welcome Thursday Evening—Evanston's McKinley Wheelmen's Club Is to Be Present and Make a Parade.

Congressman Henry A. Cooper will be given an enthusiastic welcome on his arrival in Janesville Thursday evening.

Flambeaux will light up the streets, red fire will be burned, and bands will play.

Chairman Vankirk has completed all arrangements for the big "Cooper meeting" which will be held in the opera house, and the rally will be an enthusiastic one.

Mr. Cooper will be escorted by the McKinley and Hobart Wheelmen's club, of Evansville. The club consists of sixty members. They ride gaily decorated wheels, and each carries a flambeau. The club will arrive here shortly after 7 o'clock in the evening, and will be met at the train by the Imperial band. From the depot they will parade down Milwaukee street to Court street; up Court street to Bluff street and up Bluff street to the opera house. Seats will be provided on the stage for the members, and their wheels will be cared for.

An invitation has been extended to President Hinrichs of the Railway Men's Sound Money club, to turn out also, in honor of the member of congress from this district.

All republicans are also invited to take part in the parade. The McKinley and Hobart Glee club will also take part in the meeting, singing campaign and patriotic songs.

The "Cooper meeting" will be a rouser, and no mistake.

JONES AGAINST THE SUNDAY LAWS

The League for the Protection of Personal Liberty has been actively canvassing the nominees of all parties for state offices to ascertain their attitude upon the Sunday laws. A number of nominees have already replied to the circulars of the league, expressing their attitude toward Sunday laws, and among the candidates announced by the officers of the league as having pledged themselves to vote for the repeal of all Sunday laws now upon the statute books of the state, is the name of C. E. Jones, of Beloit, the popocratic candidate for the assembly from the Beloit district. No other Rock county candidate is quoted.

M. G. Jeffris, W. A. Jackson and W. J. McIntyre Spoke Last Night

Johnstown People heard the republican doctrine last night, when M. G. Jeffris, W. A. Jackson and W. J. McIntyre spoke at that village. Mr. Jeffris made a very forceful address, and was liberally applauded. The attendance was large and the audience was enthusiastic. While there was some silver sentiment shown it was to a limited degree, the honest money sentiment being much greater. Johnstown gave five plurality for the democratic ticket at the last election but a safe republican majority is assured this year.

We have a very large trade on these goods, because we give people as good as there is at lower prices than other stores. Lowell Hardware Company.

Underwear at Low Prices.

We have had several underwear sales of late, and all of them with good results both to ourselves and to the purchasers who attended them. We always quoted extremely low prices before we commenced to sell goods for cash only, but since then, prices have even gone lower than ever at these sales. Tomorrow we start a sale of underwear that rather eclipses any of our late efforts both in prices and goods offered. By referring to our large ad on page 6 this evening, you will notice the prices as they were and as they will be during this sale. The new figures and descriptions will decide your mind at once on whether or not you buy any of the goods. Bort, Bailey & Co.

GET THE BALLOTS WITHOUT QUESTION

SUPREME COURT DECISION IS NOT OPERATIVE.

The Columbia County Officials Refuse to Issue Them to Villages Effected By the Recent Ruling, But Rock and Dane Counties Do Not Raise the Point.

County Clerk McIntyre will issue official ballots to the village of Clinton, the only village in Rock county that is effected by the late "village decision."

Judge S'ebeker was called from Madison to Portage to hear mandamus proceedings brought by the village officers of Pardeeville to compel the county clerk of Columbia county to issue official ballots to the village of Pardeeville. The county clerk has refused to issue the ballots on the ground that under the recent decision of the supreme court that the law under which this and other villages are incorporated is unconstitutional, and that consequently he cannot issue ballots to it as such.

Nearly all the villages in Dane county incorporated under this same act, but Clerk Shepard of Dane county will issue ballots to all of them unless he is stopped from so doing by legal proceedings.

County Clerk McIntyre said today that the question had not been raised in the case of Clinton, and like the Dane County clerk, he will send out the tickets.

MRS. BROWN IS EXONERATED

CONFESSES TO MANY CRIMES.

Albert Downen, Arrested at Denver, Col., Admits Several Murders.

Denver, Col., Oct. 21.—Albert Hecce Downen was arrested for holding up a suburban storekeeper Sunday night. In his room was found an assortment of masks and cheap disguises, while the place was littered with stolen property. Downen confessed that he was the lone highwayman who has terrorized Denver for three months, during which time he fought a desperate battle with the acting chief of police and a detective who drove out into the country in search of him. He killed the horse attached to the police buggy, and made the officers run for their lives. He returned to town in the same trolley car, sitting opposite them. He braved three lynching parties that waited in ambush around his favorite haunts, and was so quick with his pistols that no one could approach him. One of his victims, Joel Ashworth, struck at him with a cane and was dropped in his tracks. Altogether Downen held up twenty-three different parties. He confessed having killed a man in a hold-up at St. James park, San Jose, Cal., in 1885, and the same week killed a woman in the same town who resisted robbery. Before that he served time in the San Quentin penitentiary for holding up a stage coach in southern California. He says he will plead guilty and be hanged, as he is tired of living. He is originally from Polk county, Missouri.

Bryan Amused by Stories.

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 20.—William J. Bryan's attention was called to several newspaper reports. One, that he had been upon the stage; another stating that he had thought about going on the stage, and still another that he had written a criticism of a play and had applied for a position as press agent. He said there was no truth in the report, that he had never been upon the stage, he had never written a criticism of any production and never applied for any position in connection with any theatrical company, and had never had any thought of going on the stage, nor had he ever discussed the matter with any one. He said that at the time he was reputed as contemplating the stage, he was writing editorials in favor of free silver and delivering lectures upon the subject throughout the country. He looked on the matter with considerable amusement.

Married Without Knowing It.

New York, Oct. 20.—A motion was made in the Supreme Court Monday for the annulment of the marriage of Van Kirkman Drullard to Ray Douglas, the actress. Drullard is a member of an old and wealthy southern family, and is related to the Kirkmans of Tennessee. Drullard met Ray Douglas at a casino party. Ray Douglas alleged that she never knew that she was married until her lawyers learned of the fact at the bureau of vital statistics. She said that she was in the habit of taking opiates at the time and was doubtless under the influence of drugs when the ceremony took place. The woman is wealthy.

Spoken of as Keane's Successor.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—The name of the Rev. Father Conaty, head of the Catholic Summer School of Philosophy at Plattsburg, N. Y., is prominently mentioned for the place of rector of the Catholic University, and the belief prevails in well-informed circles that his will be one of the names submitted to the Pope. Father Conaty is a man of intellectual tendencies and his activity has brought the Catholic Summer School into marked prominence. He is attached to the Springfield (Mass.) diocese. The friends of Dr. Garrigan, vice-rector of the university, are expecting that his name will be included in those sent to the Pope.

New Turkish Minister Arrives.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—Monsieur Tahsin Bey, the new Turkish Minister, arrived here Monday and was met by Mavroyeni Bey, the retiring Minister, and the officials of the legation. The hour was too late to permit the presentation of his credentials to Secretary Olney, and this ceremony and his meeting with the President will occur to-day.

Dishonest Operator Captured.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 20.—Condie, the Chicago operator, who absconded from Oak Lake Station on the Canadian Pacific last week with $3,000 of the Dominion Express company's funds, was arrested at Gladstone Station, where he was recognized by a young man named Walters. All the money was found on Condie, who has confessed his identity.

Lake Steamer Sunk by Collision.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 20.—The steamer Grand Traverse of the Lackawanna line was sunk by collision with the steamer Livingstone at 5 o'clock Monday morning, just abreast of Colchester Light, Lake Erie, and right in the channel. The Grand Traverse was sunk almost immediately, and its crew were rescued by the Livingstone, and brought here.

Entertain Fears for Three Vessels.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 20.—Fears are entertained in this city for the safety of the barks Argenta, Silicon, and Serene, which sailed several months ago for Greenland to load cryolite for Philadelphia. Whether they have been crushed by the ice floes that have drifted down from the far north or not is not known.

PRESENT FOR THE PRESIDENT.

Valuable History of American Discovery From the King of Italy.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador, Monday visited the white house by appointment for the purpose of presenting to the president, by direction of the King of Italy, a testimonial of esteem in the shape of a set of volumes of the greatest historical value touching the early history of America. The work is in fourteen volumes, being a collection of papers relative to the discovery of America and the enterprise of Christopher Columbus, as well as the Italian explorers in the hemisphere who preceded the great navigator. It was compiled by a special commission appointed by the King of Italy and printed by the Italian government.

JUDGE RICHARDSON IS DEAD.

Was Chief Justice of Court of Claims at Washington.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—William A. Richardson, chief justice of the court of claims, died at his home here Monday, aged 74 years. He had been ill for some months with a complication of diseases and, owing to his advanced age, death had been generally expected.

Little Boy Commits Suicide.

Whiting, Ind., Oct. 20.—James Humphrey, the 9-year-old son of John Humphrey, who has been missing for four weeks, was Monday found dead in the bushes near a saloon on the outskirts of town by Fred Fentensberg. The body was badly decomposed, and was recognizable only by the clothing worn. There was a bullet hole in the head, and a revolver by the side of the body, indicating that death was self-inflicted. Some months ago the child was taken from the children's home in Chicago and adopted by Mr. Humphrey. Last spring he ran away from here, and was found near Lincoln park, Chicago, having walked the entire distance to get back to his old home. The little fellow demurred against being sent back to his foster parents, but was returned here, and lived with them till about a month ago, when he ran from the house and was not seen again until today.

Orator Put in Jail.

Knoxville, Iowa, Oct. 20.—A free silver rally here was almost broken up in a riot by the arrest of one of the curbstone orators for disturbing the peace. He had collected a big crowd of sympathetic hearers, who cheered his remarks vociferously. When arrested by the city marshal the crowd yelled its disapproval and followed along to the jail, raising a big disturbance when they saw the doors close on their man. They grew wild with frenzy and took stones and sticks, while others secured logs for battering rams. They were about to assault the jail when ex-Sheriff Amos offered to pay the man's fine if he was released at once. This was done and the mob departed.

ONE DISEASE AND ONE REMEDY

"The art of painting," said Millais, "consists in selecting the right colors and putting them in the right place."

"The way to win a battle," said Napoleon, "is to mass your troops at the critical moment against the weakest spot in the enemy's line."—"The way to cure many ailments," said the great Dr. Abercrombie, "is to purify the poisonous spring in which they arise, generally the torpid and inflamed digestive system."

Thus wisdom and experience simplify and condense. Thus the Shakers of Mount Lebanon reasoned when they sought, and finally found, a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. Where one person has something else, they argued, a thousand have this. To cure this alone will almost rid the world of sickness. Why should we vex ourselves with confusing definitions? A good digestion is life and health; a bad one disease and death. Hence, from the dealing and stimulating mountain herbs, they extracted the Shaker Digestive Cordial, the rarest and most effective of medicines for one disease, and one only—indigestion and dyspepsia.

Do you suffer from any of these miserable feelings?—depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, bad taste in the mouth, wind in the bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness and alarm, worry and weariness, costiveness or irregularity of the bowels, nausea, palpitation, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite and sleep, dry skin, etc.—?

Don't indulge in fifty foolish fancies. You have indigestion and dyspepsia and nothing else. Set the disordered stomach right with the one medicine which will surely do it, Shaker Digestive Cordial, and these symptoms will vanish with their cause. A good effect will follow the first doses. Even chronic cases soon yield.

Test the cordial, at practically no cost, by taking a ten-cent trial bottle. For sale by nearly all druggists.

CHILDREN'S STYLES.

Short, Loose Clothing and Mother Hubbard Shapes Prevail.

Bows and accessories of white satin are seen on gowns of dark velvet, and the edges of the satin adornments are often finished with a tiny border of russet guipure. The clothing of very little children is worn shorter this fall. Loose styles are preferred, the Mother Hubbard shape being the foundation of nearly all and variety being secured by differences in the depth, shape and trimming of the yoke and in the way the body of the dress is mounted on it. After the eighth year the skirt and bodice effect may be employed and corsets, boleros and vests may be utilized in almost as many styles as for women. The accessories for the Mother Hubbard gowns are, of course, much simpler and consist of white collars, bibs, pelerines and yokes of white embroidery or lace. Sailor costumes for little girls as well as little boys are also liked.

The Liberator of Ecuador.

Less than two years ago General Eloy Alfaro of Ecuador was an exile living in Nicaragua in lonely banishment, execrated and ridiculed at home.

GENERAL ELOY ALFARO.

Today he is hailed as the hero and liberator of the country and as soon as an election can be held he will be formally chosen president of Ecuador, an office which he has held provisionally for several months. The revolution which they have been having down in Ecuador has been an unusually long one. It began about April, 1895. Dr. Cordero then president, had become very obnoxious to the people. There was a revolt, and General Alfaro was called from exile to head the revolutionists. He did this with great success, drove Dr. Cordero from the country.

Mrs. Naomi Anderson has charge of this part of the work. She is a matronly looking colored woman who has been for years identified with the suffragists, and she possesses a natural gift of ora-

A woman's headaches may come from several causes. She may have a headache arising from nervousness or from digestive disturbances. Nine cases in ten, her headaches come from disorders peculiar to her sex. It may show itself in the symptoms which are characteristic of a dozen disorders. Thousands of times, women have been treated for the wrong disorders. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was compounded for the sole purpose of relieving womankind of these ills and pains. Thousands of women have testified that after taking treatment from several physicians without benefit, the "Favorite Prescription" cured them in a pleasurable and quick way. It has been used over thirty years, and has an unbroken record of success.

The woman who hesitates is invited to send 21 one-cent stamps to cover only the cost of mailing a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, which contains plain, clear information about all of the organs of the human body and their functions.

It Pays To Talk about the Shoes you are thinking about buying before you use the words "I'll take that pair." It pays to talk about the leather that goes into the uppers, the soles, the heels, the counters, &c., the kind of thread they are sewed with, the linings, and all the details of the shoe.

We Know Something

about these matters and we talk them over with you so you can understand what you are buying. Customers relying wholly on their own judgment often make mistakes.
The old saying "two heads are better than
